Fall Fest 2012: October 13–14 Calling Volunteers, Friends, Families & Fans

COMPILED BY PAIGE PARVIN

Our own Candler Park Fall Fest is less than eight weeks away—October 13 and 14—and the 2012 lineup is a perfect reminder of why this is everyone's favorite intown festival! Fall Fest is produced by CPNO, Inc. and includes 16 live bands, 100+ artist booths, a kids area, a 5K run, and a Tour of Homes. Fall Fest is FREE to attend, thanks to loyal sponsors like SweetWater Brewing Company. Thanks to this year's festival Co-chairs, Leslie Kipling, Mark Clement and David Aynes.

First, the music (submitted by Mark Clement, festival Co-chair):

In 1993, an epic movie entitled Dazed and Confused was released. This film chronicles the adventures of high school and junior high students on the last day of school in May 1976. It had a fantastic soundtrack that is a quintessential time capsule of the music of that era. This was an innocent time for music before disco ruined it all.

Why is this important? Well, that will be our theme for the Fall Fest on Saturday and headliner Yacht Rock Revue will be performing the soundtrack from beginning to end. To really get the theme across, they will have none other than the Rock-N-Roll Honcho man himself, Mr. Rick Derringer... Pretty cool, eh?!

Returning to close out the festival on Sunday, we will present the wonderful local legend, the lovely Ms. Francine Reed. Rounding up the lineup we will have

My Homework Ate My Dog, The Seed and Feed, and Bernadette Seacrest. And that's not all! The final lineup and times will be released soon.

5K Road Race:

The 12th annual Fall Fest 5K will begin at 10 AM on Saturday. Registration is now open: www.candlerparkfallfest.com/5k

All participants will receive a premium quality, environmentally sustainable t-shirt and a beverage ticket good for a complimentary SweetWater draft beer at Fall Fest ($5 value). This year's race will be chip timed using My Laps disposable bibtag chip technology.

Volunteer:

We need the help of volunteers to make the 2012 Fall Fest a success! Please sign-up to volunteer anytime through the festival weekend, October 13–14. You can sign-up for one slot or 10! Spread the word and volunteer with your friends. You don't need to be a Candler park resident to sign-up, and all volunteers receive a festival t-shirt. Go to www.candlerparkfallfest.com/volunteer to sign-up online.

Atlanta Farmers Markets Team Up to Celebrate Local Food in 'Dine-Around' Events at area restaurants support Georgia farmers

BY LOU LINZIE

In August, nine community farmers markets will join forces to celebrate Atlanta Farmers Market month through a series of dine-around events in Atlanta. Events will take place at establishments that support Georgia farmers and produce. Local farmers market managers have joined forces to get more people to look to their local farmers as a primary food source. With so much of the food in stores coming from all over the world, it can be very confusing for shoppers to figure out when and where to buy Georgia grown, farm fresh goods.

"Now more than ever, our consumption must be community-based; not commodity-based," said Alice Rolls, executive director of Georgia Organics. "A sustainable local food system is critical to the future of Georgia's health, environment, and economy--a fact imperative not only when shopping for groceries, but also when dining out. We applaud restaurants that support Georgia's hard-working farmers each and every single day."

New Festivals Committee Formed

BY DONNA PALMER, COMMITTEE VOLUNTEER

At the July CPNO membership meeting, members voted to form a new committee dedicated to working directly with the Atlanta City Council to help regulate the festivals held in Candler Park. The committee will likely draft proposals to the council that represent the neighborhood's position and priorities related to festivals, which are growing in both number and size.

Neighbors interested in participating on the committee should contact Mark Clement, Special Projects Officer: 404-808-3635 or projects@candlerpark.org. Visit www.candlerpark.org for updates about future meeting dates and locations.

Back to School! Look Out for Little Feet

BY PAIGE PARVIN

Atlanta Public Schools kicked off the new school year on August 6, which means high numbers of neighborhood kids will be walking to and from Mary Lin Elementary and the bus stops for Inman and Grady, as well as being transported to daycare programs and other area schools. Commuters and drivers, please be aware of pedestrians and use extra caution in the morning and afternoon hours, particularly at our busy neighborhood crosswalks!

Traffic Committee Progress Continues

BY JIMMY BLIGH, CPNO SAFETY OFFICER

As announced at the July membership meeting, the Candler Park Traffic Committee held two meetings, August 6 and August 9, to discuss traffic concerns with the neighborhood, including the challenges at the Oakdale-McLendon Intersection) and also, inform the neighborhood how surrounding neighborhoods have approached traffic issues and partnered with the city in doing so. Two speakers were scheduled to appear at the August 9 meeting: Councilman Alex Wan, Candler Park's City Council Representative, and Aaron Fortner, a city planner with both private and public sector experience in Atlanta.

The Traffic Committee is seeking community feedback and plans to work with an external firm to develop a Master Traffic Plan for the neighborhood. Look for more information in next month's Messenger, the CPNO website (www.candlerpark.org), and upcoming CPNO membership meetings.

Freedom Park Bird and Butterfly Garden Workday

BY CAROL VANDERSCHAFF

Know Your Neighbor: Lexa King, CPNO Membership Officer

BY PAIGE PARVIN

How long have you lived in Candler Park, and where do you live?

This month I am celebrating 28 years on Euclid Ave.

Do you have family, kids, pets?

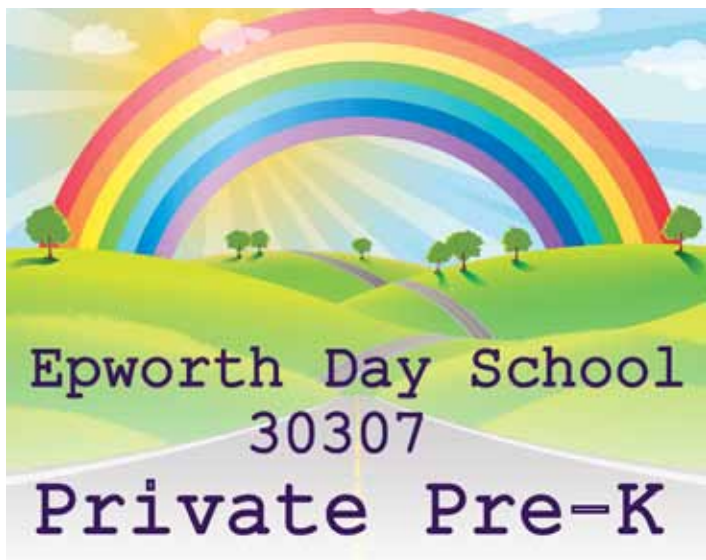

I raised both of my daughters in Candler Park, but now that they are grown I share the house with 3 cats - Chicken, Chance & Charm.

How/why did you choose the neighborhood?

MASSAGE THERAPY

When I was searching for my house, I was employed as an accountant. At the time, Candler Park was filled with artists and free spirits. Guess it was the "opposites attract" phenomenon.

Would you like to share what you do professionally?

I'm a realtor with Keller Williams Realty Intown Atlanta.

Why do you think it's important to volunteer your time for the CPNO board?

This past year is a great example of what can go wrong or right within a neighborhood. One of the concerns for people as they house hunt is the schools that serve the area. The school redistricting was one of the bigger issues I have experienced since I moved here--the other being the roadway fight in the 1980s. I shudder to think what our property values would have become if either of those fights were met with indifference by the neighborhood or if we had lost those efforts. These are quality of life issues which, ultimately, determine how much people are willing to pay to live here. I will do whatever I can to protect our property values.

What other activities, organizations, or hobbies are you involved in?

I do volunteer work with some animal rescue groups, take a lot of classes with Landmark Education and the Spiritual Living Center of Atlanta, read a ton and love to waste time in my garden and in the kitchen.

What's your favorite thing about Candler Park?

The diversity of the residents and watching the transformation of the homes as they are lovingly restored. Also, our proximity to everything important --parks, restaurants, theatres, all "intown" amenities.

What's something about Candler Park that you wish would change?

I resist the trend toward larger homes. Bungalows are my favorite style and I would not want the neighborhood to lose the "charm factor".

Where is your favorite spot in the neighborhood, indoors or out, to hang out?

My house --particularly the front porch. I love to sit with a friend and a glass of wine and watch the world pass. It's also fun to have a cup of coffee and watch participants in races run down Euclid while I'm still waking up. A thunderstorm is entertaining, also.

He also announced that Candler Park is undergoing some improvements including repairing the stairs by the basketball court and repairing the sidewalks on McLendon Avenue.

CPNO Membership Meeting Minutes July 16, 2012

SUBMITTED BY MISCHA UPPELSCHOTEN

7:07 Meeting called to order by President Jay Sandhaus

7:08 Law Enforcement Report: More crime, up 26 percent in Zone 6 compared to previous week; this area 17 percent, largely from vehicles; 4 auto thefts last week.
Watch for your neighbor, ex: stolen vehicle

Motion to adopt agenda, adopted

Announcements:

-Steve Goff has left CPNO, thanks for your time and energy!
-Golf course: city released consultants' report, possibly if not profitable, convert to park.

George Dusenbury wants to come to talk to the neighborhood directly and will come to August CPNO meeting. The CPNO board has created a committee to focus solely on the golf course. Tate Lauf-Wust stepped up and into Environmental Officer position to lead committee. The email is on the CPNO website.

-CPNO needs a representative on the Freedom Park Conservancy Board. This requires a once a month meeting trying to do fundraising, someone with a legal background might be helpful.

-Scott Jacobs, Candler Park Gardening Association

Motion to adopt previous month's meeting minutes: 24 in favor, 1 opposed, 3 abstained. Motion carries.

SweetWater 420 discussion:

-Post event in 2013 likely to happen; a neighbor asks the question, do we need a separate meeting to discuss?

-Resident Donna Palmer: suggests City Council committee meeting about large festivals, points from meeting to consider when talking to SweetWater:

--One, noise level has to be within reasonable limits.

Consider Chastain Park? Limit 85 DB?

--Two, have police at the intersection of McLendon. People who live on the park should be allowed cones. No buses, especially with running engines. They should afford Candler Park the same constraints as Chastain.

-Resident Amy Stout: An assistant to Julian Bond, who ordered the parks department to do a survey about parks usage--suggests fixed rules regarding security, access, etc. Suggests to work with Bond. States she is unhappy about being unable to walk on a public sidewalk.

-Resident Lauren Welsh: Suggests discussing concerns, encourage better behavior. Perhaps learn from other neighborhoods like Piedmont Park, Old Fourth Ward; address concerns with the city. Parking problem is wider than a few close-by streets. Festival effectively goes beyond 11 PM. Wants to work with festival organizers.

-Resident David Aynes: The festival has positive attributes. $50,000 was raised. Organizers have fixed things as we addressed them.

-Resident Cathy Rice, Elmira: This year was different-people, trash, parking, noise, need to better job in controlling it. This is a neighborhood, not a concert venue. Food trucks parked on grass. Needs to be fixed after the fact in a more comprehensive way. Trash cans throughout the neighborhood.

-Other comments from neighbors: What are we trying to accomplish?...We did not have many problems...This festival wasn't so bad compared to others

-Suggestion: Have people park at the old MARTA station and shuttle bus them in.

-Jay: MARTA is not amenable to that.

-Suggestion: other place to park?

-Motion: Establish a committee to recommend changes, chaired by person chosen by the committee.

-Jay: The goal of the committee should be to articulate the neighborhood consensus.

-Walt Weimar: Olmstead Park struggles w/ same park usage issues. Rationale for no events in Freedom Park perhaps no longer valid. Moving some events to Freedom Park might alleviate Candler Park. Are we functioning as spillover for Piedmont Park?

-Comment: We need to structure this issue, a committee is good way to do it. They should coordinate with the city schedule and festival application.

-Motion: 25 in favor, 0 opposed, 5 abstentions

Membership Report: Lexa King

-We need a strong board to face issues. Starting now, in order to be a board member, you need to attend four meetings. We are looking for candidates; please make your interest known. Consider: where can I use my skills, where can I hone or even learn skills? Contact Lexa King

Public Safety Report: Jimmy Bligh

-CPNO Traffic Committee has discussed the McLendon/Oakdale intersection. In the past month met couple of times, had meetings with city officials and neighbors. The ultimate goal is to give recommendation to membership
