Fall Fest 2010 – Where to Begin?

By Kate Sandhaus & Cherie King

What a weekend! A heart-felt thank you to everyone who made Fall Fest possible—the 100+ artists, 16 bands, food vendors, and of course the wonderful sponsors who made it possible to keep the event free. Please be sure to support these businesses and thank them for sponsoring Fall Fest.

And oh, the weather! Bright blue, cloudless skies and sun galore—it was straight out of a Chamber of Commerce brochure. Dave Aynes was assigned the role of “weather coordinator” and boy, did he ever come through.

Beverage sales and ATM transactions were up roughly 30%, which suggests attendance was up about the same. We are so grateful to all the festival-goers who came out for some Candler Park style hospitality. Thank you all for sharing a great weekend with us.

We don't yet have final numbers, but Dave Aynes is locked in a closet with his abacus and will have the bottom line in time for the November membership meeting.

An extra special thanks goes to two groups of folks. First, the 200+ (!!!) volunteers who came out to help. It's amazing what you can do when you multiply 200 by a few hours. We so appreciate all the hard work, and enjoyed getting to know you all.

Last but not least, to the Fall Fest committee members, we salute you: Michele Allen, Dave Aynes, Erin Aynes, Mary Alice Bray, Kelly Campbell, Mark Clement, Anna Coan, Ken Edelstein, Heather Hudgens, Edi Kelman, Deb Milbrath, Donna Palmer, Randy Pimsler, JoJo Ross, Jay Sandhaus, Melissa Uppelschoten, Lauren Welsh, Walt Weimar, Doug Wetzel, Christine Woodhouse.

It is difficult to convey how much effort this group put in, and how many emails were exchanged; everyone's inboxes deserve a break! Tell your families, significant others and co-workers that we appreciate them sharing you for the last few months.

There's been much debate around how to measure success around Fall Fest. We'll gauge financial success in the coming weeks, but everyone who participated knows there's more to it than that. Most importantly, we brought our community together.

Don Long, Volunteer Coordinator at Clifton Sanctuary, who was absolutely integral to making this weekend run smoothly, described the post-Fall Fest glow like this:

I actually felt energized when I got home last night for a couple of hours. The satisfaction of a job well done, the great sense of community, and the thrill of seeing the men at Clifton feeling proud. But most of all, I think it was that wonderful sensation that you have made great new friends and deepened the bonds that already exist.

We couldn't have said it better ourselves, Don. Thank you all for making this weekend so successful and memorable. We were honored to be a part of it.

2010 Tour of Homes Showcased Candler Park Hospitality By Mary Alice Bray

Mother Nature was smiling again this year, and we had the perfect fall day for the Candler Park Tour of Homes. We had eight beautiful houses whose construction dates span 120 years.

We had tour goers from intown, the 'burbs and some visiting from other states and countries. We're still getting the final numbers in, but it seemed like a big turnout with a constant stream of people going through the houses. Special thanks to our homeowners who spent a lot of time making their houses picture perfect for everyone to enjoy.

Many thanks to Margaret Bryce, Donna Church, Judith Gott, Lexa King, Deb Milbrath and Nancy Porteous who recruited houses and helped with the many details of the tour.

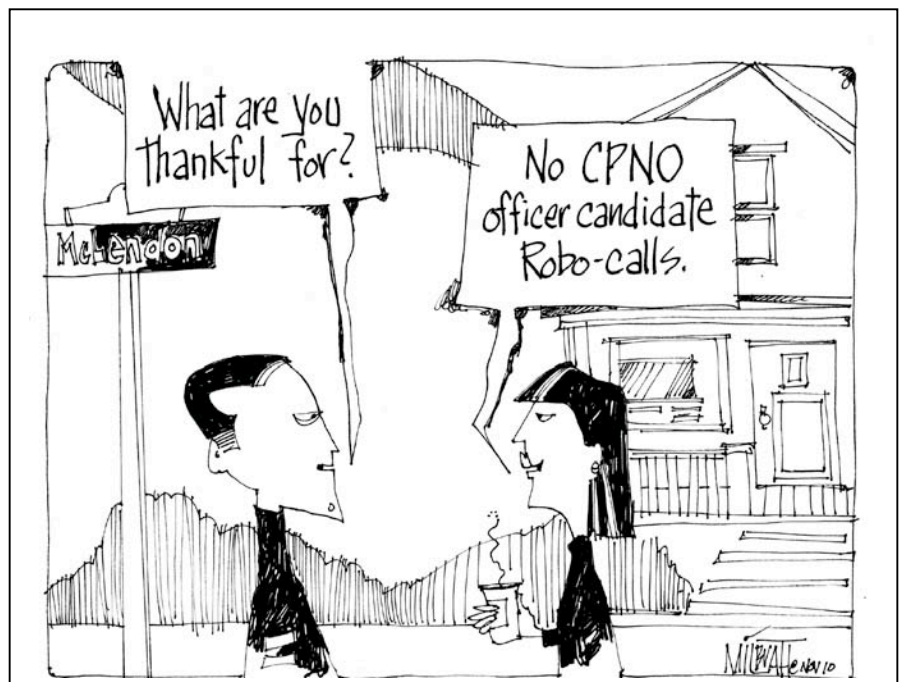

Extra thanks to our volunteers who greeted tour goers, sold tickets, gave directions, provided info about the neighborhood and all around enthusiasm. Some of our volunteers have been volunteering for over 20 years!

Homeowners:

David & Elena Lasker, Josh & Pao Weinrobe, Jesse & Janet Reeves, Milissa Cole, Nicole & Brandon Forde, Vera & Michael Norman, Jeff & Victoria Wuesthoff, and Richard & Marishyl Ford.

TOH volunteers:

We Let the Music Play

By Mark Clement

We celebrated our 10th year of the Candler Park Fall Festival with style, class and some good old fashioned booty-shakin! Thanks to our new Candler Park neighbor, the one and only Ms. Francine Reed, who "brought the park down" on Saturday night and our old friends League of Decency who had everyone moving, including Ms. Reed who showed up Sunday and joined them onstage! Fantastic!

Other highlights included our young friends, My Homework Ate My Dog. These tweens from the neighborhood brought out a larger midday audience than ever before. And the STEMS brought out just as many locals.

Best bluegrass band I've ever heard, Deja Bluegrass rocked the stage Sunday. And for our younger, preschool crowd, Mr. Eric of Pete the Cat fame, and Mr. Michael from the Learning Groove provided wonderful songs and stories the kids and parents both loved.

I want to thank all the bands and musicians for sharing your time and talents with us: The Spies of Life, My Imaginary Band, Dave Franklin, Boo Hoo Ramblers, Webster, Seed and Feed Marching Abominable, Tommy Thompson Band, Olde Dog, Beautiful Little Fools, Brent Starr, Baton Bob and the Leaf Masterful. We also had a proclamation from the city council commemorating Candler Park on the tenth anniversary of the Fall Fest presented by Alan Wan. Not to be outdone, Kathy Gannon and Jeff Rater from DeKalb County Commissioners office made a similar proclamation.

Twenty acts in two days, plus a costume contest—you could say we got the most out of our stage rental! This year we installed a 8x10 apron on front of the stage that gave a place for acts and presentations (and a kiddy mosh pit) between acts, making the entertainment more interactive. I cannot say enough about our headliners...Piedmont Park can have Paul McCartney and The Eagles—Candler Park will take Francine Reed and League of Decency any day!! It was such a pleasure working with all the acts and volunteers. It will be hard to top this year, but we have already started working on it.

Locals Give Music to Benefit the Atlanta Humane Society

Submitted by Boyd Baker/
Community Arts Live

A really cool project is happening in Atlanta this holiday season because of Lake Claire resident Boyd Baker. The Holiday Twelve is a one-of-a-kind, limited edition cd of holiday songs donated by local and regional musicians. The Indigo Girls, Francine Reed, Kingsized, Yacht Rock Revue, Stovall, Jennifer Daniels, Soulphonics & Ruby Velle, Gringo Star, Blair Crimmins & the Hookers, Oryx and Crake, Caroline & the Ramblers, and songwriter/poet Kodac Harrison all contributed their renditions of holiday favorites or originals for the cause. The cd is entitled WAG-A-LOT presents All Creature Great and Small and proceeds will benefit The Atlanta Humane Society.

Baker recently founded Community Arts Live, a non-profit organization that brings together artists, the community and live performance to educate and inspire and The Holiday Twelve is his first project. "I remember buying a holiday compilation put out by Sister Ruby Records in 1992 and always thought it was a great way to get introduced to local talent. Being a huge fan of holiday music, adding the twist of benefiting a local charity just made the project that much better," says Baker about the concept behind the holiday release. He continues, "So many folks have been very gracious in donating their time and talents. When I said it was for the Atlanta Humane Society, everyone was quick to jump on board. WAG-A-LOT came forward to sponsor the project. It's a natural fit with their wide variety of services for dogs, such as doggie day care, grooming, boarding and training."

Besides the artists and sponsor, a lot of people "behind the scenes" are helping the AHS with this project. Radio station B98.5 – THE holiday music station – has offered to help spread the word about the cd and it will be available for purchase from metro area BEST BUY locations. Alex Lowe of Red Tuxedo Productions did a fantastic job of mastering the diverse talents on this disc, Denver-based G. Carr Illustration and Design (www.gcarr.net) provided the artwork, while Video Copy Services (www.video-copy.com) helped with the cd production. "The outpouring of help from folks reminds me what a great community we have here in Atlanta and how much they believe in the work of the Atlanta Humane Society," says Baker.

WAG-A-LOT's All Creatures Great and Small will be released on Black Friday, November 26 and available through Monday, December 27, 2010 for download online and at retail locations. To learn more, or sign up to be the first to get a copy of the cd, visit www.TheHolidayTwelve.com.

Keep Our Police Mini-Precinct Going

By Richard B. Shapiro, DDS

Now beginning its 13th year of existence, the Atlanta Police Mini-Precinct in Little 5 Points is a cornerstone in our community's approach to reduce crime. The Mini-Precinct continues to provide a crucial increased police presence in our community.

But we need your help to keep it open. Thus this yearly appeal: for individual donations (a few months early as funds are running low); and for neighborhood support at the next CPNO meeting for the $5000 grant suggested by the Board.

Since it opened, the increased presence and visibility of Atlanta Police Officers that the Mini-Precinct brings to our community has made a significant difference in the conduct of those hanging out in L5P and the surrounding community. We are particularly pleased to continue to have Officer Dino LaRosa (an aggressive officer with decades of familiarity with the L5P area, including many years as our local bicycle officer), assigned to the Mini-Precinct. Our area is far less dangerous than it used to be, when shootings, stabbings, armed robberies, vicious assaults, with some fatalities, were practically routine—these types of incidents have become relatively rare since the advent of the L5P Mini-Precinct (working in conjunction with several other anti-crime initiatives).

The Mini-Precinct is a public/private partnership between the City of Atlanta and community. The community provided the funds to renovate the space and continues to pay for rent, utilities and other operating costs. The Police Dept. provides the officers, equipment, supplies, video surveillance, etc. The this satellite police station's funding comes from L5P Business Association members; grants from the Inman Park Neighborhood Association and the Candler Park Neighbor Neighborhood Organization; and contributions from individual households in the area.

Keeping the Mini-Precinct here requires funding. Please support the CPNO grant. And also send your personal contribution now (matching your last year's contribution, or sending $50, or more is suggested). It's the right thing to do for your community, your neighbors and yourself. Send your check (include your name, address and phone number) to: L5PBA Mini-Precinct Fund, PO Box 5733, Atlanta, GA 31107.

Fall Fest Volunteers En Masse!

By Kate Sandhaus & Cherie King

If this festival is the little engine that could, then the volunteers are the fuel that got us up the mountain. More than 200+ people volunteered at the festival this year—an astounding turnout! Thank you to the all-star cast.

26th Annual Inman Park Cooperative Preschool "Growing Up Green"
Holiday Sale & Auction at Inman Park Trolley Barn, November 21, 3 p.m. - 7 p.m.

An in-town Atlanta tradition, this event is part party, part fundraiser, part reunion and part shopping experience. 2010 marks the twenty-sixth anniversary of IPCP's auction, which has gone from being a tiny affair raising $3,000 in 1984 to this year's gala event. With both a silent and a live auction, attendees will have the opportunity to bid on all sorts of items and services like restaurant gift certificates, fitness classes, architectural consultations, weekend getaways and more. They'll also be raffling off a three-course dinner for four with Celebrity Chef Tracy Nailor as well as a fire truck ride. Admission to the IPCP Annual Holiday Sale and Auction is FREE. Auction proceeds support the preschool by providing books, toys and educational materials, maintaining the school's award-winning greenspace and supporting scholarship programs.

Oakhurst Cooperative Preschool's 2010 Auction Jubilee at All Souls Fellowship in Decatur, Saturday, November 13th from 3 to 6 p.m.

The silent auction will feature many exceptional items including original art from local artists, unique hand-crafted apparel and gifts, memberships, vacation home rentals, gift certificates and retail items from Decatur and Intown Atlanta's favorite stores and restaurants and much more! Oakhurst Cooperative Preschool's Auction Jubilee is a casual, family-friendly event with something to interest everyone. There will be food, fun and entertainment including children's activities and live music. Oakhurst Cooperative Preschool (OCP) is a nonprofit, parent-teacher cooperative established in 2005. The proceeds from this auction will benefit the special projects for OCP, including our tuition assistance program. Admission to the Auction Jubilee is free. Pre-register to bid during the event at www.oakhurstcoop.com. For questions or to make a donation to the silent auction, please call 404-370-0257 or email at ocpauction@gmail.com.

Vote on Iverson Park Plan By Eric Dusenbury

At the November CPNO meeting we will have a presentation from the Friends of Iverson Park on a plan they would like to implement in Iverson Park. The neighborhood has already approved the concept of a trail around the perimeter of the park and the building of a low granite seat wall along the front of the park. This vote will be on a more detailed plan with specific locations, materials, and drawings. The drawings will be available on the CPNO web site prior to the meeting so please feel free to log on and check them out: www.candlerpark.org.

The City of Atlanta 2011 Comprehensive Development Plan (CDP)

What is the CDP?

Comprehensive Planning is required by all cities and counties under the Georgia Planning Act of 1989. The Georgia Department of Community Affairs sets the Minimum Standards for Comprehensive Planning. In addition, the City of Atlanta Charter mandates the preparation of a Comprehensive Plan every 3 to 5 years. The purpose of the Comprehensive Development Plan is to guide the growth and development of the City, set forth development goals, policies and an implementation plan for the City and its neighborhoods, while setting the framework for the future for a successful and prosperous Atlanta. The next Comprehensive Development Plan is due October 31, 2011.

How can I get Involved?

The Bureau of Planning will be working with neighborhoods and community groups in the development of the Community Agenda portion of the 2011 CDP. There will be opportunities for input at various stages in the planning process. The schedule of meetings and information about other ways to provide input will be distributed through the NPU's and other community organizations.

The Friends School of Atlanta Hosts an Evening with Melissa Fay Greene Submitted by Nancy Bent

On Tuesday, November 16, The Friends School of Atlanta (FSA) will host award-winning author and journalist Melissa Fay Greene, who will speak about her book There Is No Me Without You, in which the author puts a human face on the AIDS crisis in Africa. Greene will discuss the Ethiopian woman at the heart of the story, Haregewoin Teferra, and her heroic work caring for 60 children, running an unofficial orphanage and day school and learning first-hand about her country's and her continent's greatest challenge: the AIDS pandemic that is leaving millions of children without parents to care for them. The event, which runs from 6:00 to 8:00 pm, will be held on the FSA campus at 862 Columbia Drive in Decatur and is free and open to the public.

Melissa Fay Greene, who is an FSA alum parent, is making her presentation as part of a Speaker Series entitled: Building Beloved Community, Celebrating 20 Years of Quaker Education in Atlanta, which is commemorating the 20th Anniversary of The Friends School of Atlanta throughout the 2010-11 school year. The Friends School of Atlanta offers a pre-K – 8th grade program and remains the only Quaker school in Georgia. For more information about the event, contact Nancy Bent, Director of Advancement: 404-373-8746 x8135; nancy.bent@friendsschoolatlanta.org. For more information about the school and admissions, visit www.friendsschoolatlanta.org or contact Waman French, Head of School: 404-373-8746x8136; waman.french@friendsschoolatlanta.org.

CPNO Monthly Meeting Minutes, October 18, 2010

I. Welcome and approval of agenda: CPNO President Doug Wetzel opened the meeting at 7:05 p.m., welcoming approximately 28 members and guests.

II. Report from Atlanta Police Department: Major Dalton introduced Captain Vince Moore, the new Zone 6 captain. Major Dalton noted that crime rates in Zone Six continue to be among the lowest in the City – down 13% from the same month last year and down 52% compared with the first nine months of 2009. There have been several burglaries and about 5 car break ins during the past month but not much other criminal activity. Major Dalton said several armed robberies have taken place in nearby neighborhoods; composite sketches were shared with CPNO and will be posted on the CPNO website. Also noted was that the Zone 6 geographic area has been reconfigured, with distant beats to the north and south reassigned to other precincts, and areas west of Candler Park all the way to the Connector now added to Zone 6.

Celebrating Thirty-One Years of Night Hospitality!

By Sarah Wynn

The 2010 year has been quite a busy one for the staff and volunteers of Clifton Sanctuary Ministries, as over two hundred men have been served in new and varied ways. On Sunday, October 17, the staff, the guests, and volunteers from across metro Atlanta gathered at Pleasant Hill Presbyterian Church in Duluth to celebrate the achievements of fifty-one incredible program graduates and the contributions of volunteers and organizations to the success of Clifton Sanctuary.

The program began with Mark Matthews, the master of ceremonies and a former Clifton guest, sharing a poem he's written about his journey back to independent living:

I Don't Regret a Mile

*I've dreamed many a dream that's never come true.
I've seen them vanish at dawn.
But enough of my dreams have come true
To make me keep dreaming on.*

*I've prayed many a prayer that seemed no answer would come,
Though I'd waited so patient and long
But enough answers have come to my prayers
To help me keep praying on.*

*I've sown many a seed that fallen by the wayside,
For the birds to feed upon
But I've held enough golden fruit in my hands
To cause me to keep sowing on.*

*I've trusted many a friend that's failed me
And left me to cry alone.
But enough of my friends have been true
To make me keep trusting on.*

*I've drained the cup of disappointment and pain
And gone many a day without song.
But I've sipped enough nectar from the roses of life
To make me want to live on.*

Cherie King, Alvin Bailey, and Leslie Prince

After former guests Graylin Covington, Alvin Bailey, and David Allen spoke about the care, encouragement, and respect they had received at Clifton and Joe's Place and how their lives have been changed as a result, fifty-one gentlemen were honored for accomplishing their goals at Clifton and returning to independent living.

Cherie King, Clifton board member and Mary Lin Foundation president, presented each of the 2010 graduates at the dinner with a gift bag prepared by Brownie Troop #29359 from Mary Lin Elementary. The twenty-two third graders assembled the gift bags and decorated each one with a butterfly with the help of their troop leader, Kelly Crutcher, and other parents.

The BB&T Buckhead branch was honored as the Corporate Volunteer of the Year for assisting Clifton with banking and credit card services. The branch has also provided new appliances, outdoor furniture, and linens for Joe's Place. Northwest Presbyterian Church was honored as the Congregation of the Year for increasing its level of financial support this year, for inviting Clifton speakers to its religious education classes to talk about homelessness, and for conducting a suit and sport coat drive for Clifton's Dress for Success program. Brad Michalove was recognized as the Individual Volunteer of the Year for his almost daily service on the board of directors as the treasurer. Brad lives in Candler Park, but Clifton has become a second home to him with the number of hours he dedicates to the needs of the shelter. Prince Davies-Venn, staff chaplain and case manager, was also recognized for his ten years of employment at Clifton. The number of lives that Prince has touched and uplifted in these last ten years is incalculable.

The evening's celebration of achievement, success, and generosity sent everyone in the room back out into the world with overflowing hope and joy. What a wonderful graduation and anniversary party!

III. Announcements:

Doug Wetzel announced that CPNO elections will take place during the November general meeting. Several positions are open. Randy Pimsler is heading up the nominating committee and can be reached at zoning@candlerpark.org. To be eligible, residents must have attended four CPNO meetings in the past year (November's meeting counts toward this). There are other ways to get involved in CPNO in addition to a Board position.

Doug Wetzel announced that the Fall Ball will take place October 22 from 7:30 p.m. – 11:00 p.m. at the Existentialist Church.

Doug Wetzel announced that the Little 5 Points Community Police Precinct will be requesting a donation toward operating expenses at the next CPNO meeting. An article detailing the request will appear in the Messenger.

Cherie King announced that a block party will be held November 13. Forty-four families have been invited. CPNO funds of $250 will partially support this event, as previously authorized for disbursement following submittal of approved receipts to Membership officer Lauren Welsh or Treasurer David Aynes.

Doug Wetzel announced an October 30 ribbon cutting ceremony for the Atlanta Beltline segment between Dekalb Avenue and Piedmont Park. The Beltline bike path will link Candler Park to other neighborhoods. Denise Warner, a candidate for DeKalb County Superior Court judge, returned to CPNO to provide details about her candidacy. More information is available at www.DeniseWarner.com.

A representative from the office of Michael Rothenberg, who is a candidate for DeKalb County Superior Court judge, provided details about his candidacy. Candler Park neighbor Adrienne Hunter-Strothers shared information about her campaign for a Georgia Court of Appeals judgeship. She has been campaigning throughout the state over the past several weeks and appreciates the support of her Candler Park neighbors.

IV. Approval of Previous Month's minutes: The September minutes were approved by a show of hands.

V. Officer and Committee Chair Reportsa. Fall Fest

– Fall Fest Chairs Cherie King and Kate Sandhaus updated CPNO residents on recent accomplishments including a spectacular float in the Little 5 Points Halloween Parade. Sponsorships are now just over $28,000. Billboards advertising the Festival are in place on major highways including Interstate 85. Cherie and Kate noted that these efforts should bring in additional customers. Major events during Fall Fest include the Fall Ball (Friday night), a 5 K Run (Saturday at 11:00 a.m.), the Festival (Saturday and Sunday), and the Tour of Homes (Sunday). Volunteers are needed; there is an electronic signup sheet on the CPNO website. Candler Park residents are encouraged to "friend" the festival on Facebook; the CPNO booth at Fall Fest will include raffle tickets, t-shirts, and other items. Kate and Cherie requested $70 in funds for a CPNO banner; this was approved by a show of hands. Doug Wetzel congratulated Cherie and Kate for their contributions and gave them a gift certificate as a small token of CPNO's appreciation. Doug requested $100 to be reimbursed for the gift certificates; this was approved by a show of hands. Cherie and Kate were given a resounding round of applause for their efforts. CPNO is grateful for their time and dedication to making the 2010 Fall Fest a success.

-On October 16 the remaining creeping fig was planted and the original plants restaked.
 -There will be a butterfly garden planting November 13 at 10:00 a.m.. Information will be available in a Messenger article and on the CPNO website.

c. NPU-U Rep:

-Amy Stout reported on the City's most recent master planning activities. Members should contact her if they have questions or concerns.

-d. Public Safety: Given the recent armed robberies and carjackings in adjacent neighborhoods, David Bruce encouraged residents to be aware.

e. Zoning: Randy Pimsler noted that there are no applications this month; a few items will be considered by the Zoning Committee next month. These include a variance request for 475 Clifton and a liquor license for the Wrecking Bar property on Moreland Avenue (while the property is not under CPNO's jurisdiction, the property owner will be presenting his request to CPNO at the request of the Neighborhood Planning Unit- NPU). Randy noted that he has been contacted by an architect involved in a potential new project on DeKalb Ave & Glendale, who will submit a few drawings for zoning committee comment. In addition, Allen Cunningham, a former Candler Park resident, has prepared a power point presentation outlining an option for developing land around the Candler Park MARTA station. This will be circulated to the CPNO Zoning Committee.

f. Finance: Dave Aynes noted that the CPNO account has $96,000 in cash- $29,000 of this is committed and $67,000 uncommitted.

g. Membership: Lauren Welsh noted that block party funds are available. To be eligible, one must be a member of CPNO, show that they have been inclusive in inviting neighbors, announce the event at a CPNO meeting and save receipts. Hosts can be reimbursed for up to $250 for food and drink (excluding alcohol) or toward the cost of a permit to block the street.

Lauren asked new members to identify themselves; they were recognized with a round of applause.

VI. New Business

The One Twelve Gallery (www.onetwelvegallery.com) will have an opening reception for the new textile exhibit – Seamless – Friday November 12 from 7:00 to 9:00 p.m. The gallery is located at 112 Krog Street in Inman Park.

Neighbors asked how to get the issue of illegal parking on Oakdale Avenue onto the CPNO agenda. It was suggested that those concerned about the issue initiate an idea and bring it to CPNO.

Walt Weimar asked neighbors to please let him know if they are not receiving their copy of the Messenger.

Walt Weimar announced the third "Screen on the Green" will take place on Saturday, October 30 at sunset. The movie will be Monsters vs. Aliens. There will be a community shred day October 23 at the 1st Baptist Church, Decatur.

Regina Brandt announced the death of Holly Mull. A service will be held in November at St. Luke's Episcopal Church. A memorial fund will be established in her name.

VII. Adjournment: Doug Wetzel adjourned the meeting at 8:10 p.m.

City Church-Eastside Holds Second Annual Sale, Beyond Fair Trade

Submitted by Bryan Buck/
City Church-Eastside

Atlanta, GA--City Church Eastside will hold the second annual event and sale Beyond Fair Trade on December 3, from 6 to 9 p.m. at the Stove Works facility, 112 Krog Street. This year the local event and sale will feature the hand-made goods of three non-profit faith-based organizations--Amani Ya Juu, the Apparent Project, and 3 Seams.

The sale will feature children's clothing, accessories, home accents, and beautiful jewelry. All proceeds from the sale go back to each organization to support their missions of empowering third-world communities through fair-trade programs.

"Beyond Fair Trade is not only about providing fair wages for those working," explains Scott Armstrong, Lead Pastor of City Church Eastside. "City Church shares a passion with each of these organizations to create a community for all people, locally and globally, where they can experience relationship with God and the community of joy, friendship and love born out of it."

Amani Ya Juu is a Nairobi-based organization that gives marginalized African women an opportunity to develop and improve marketable sewing and business skills within a God-centered community. The women gain experience in purchasing, bookkeeping, skill training, quality control, management and design. For more information visit amaniafrica.org

The Apparent Project focuses on the prevention of child abandonment in Haiti by creating opportunities for impoverished parents to earn an income through their artisan program which trains parents in a specialized skill, such as jewelry making, bookbinding, sewing, or another craft. For more information visit apparentproject.org

3 Seams creates opportunities for people to purchase clothing for their children while at the same time supplying a child in need with an identical piece. Each piece of clothing is made in sets of two. One piece goes home with the buyer and one is donated by 3 Seams to an organization that ensures a child in need will receive it! For more information visit 3seams.com

City Church-Eastside is a parish-minded church that seeks to embody and articulate the historic Christian faith, bringing about spiritually transformed lives, social healing, and cultural renewal to Atlanta's urban eastside. Meeting Sundays at the Stove Works facility (10:30 a.m. for worship) the church facility is also home to 112 Gallery and Renew Counseling Center.

Be sure to renew your membership for 2010

It's a great way to get involved in the neighborhood and keep up with what's happening in Candler Park, and allows you to fully participate by voting in CPNO monthly meetings, receive e-mails with important news, and keep apprised of upcoming meetings. In 2010 the CPNO Board will be reviewing by-laws to change annual renewal, but for now we need all members to renew.
